REPUBLICANS FAIL TO REACH AGREEMENT; DAYLIGHT SAVINGS VETO IS SUSTAINED

SO FAR LODGE AND HIS PARTISAN CREW ARE AT LOG-GERHEADS.

Resolutions Reported

SWANSON OPENS THE DEBATE AND STRONGLY DEFENDS THE PEACE COVENANT.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, July 14.—The house this afternoon failed to override President Wilson's veto of the daylight savings law. The veto was 247 in favor of overriding and 135 in favor of sustaining the veto. As a two-thirds vote was necessary, it would have required 254 votes to pass the measure over the President's disapproval.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, July 14.—By dropping the textual amendment proposed by the more radical anti-amendment senators, Republican leaders of the senate today agreed to fall back upon qualifying or interpreting reservations in their effort to prevent their ratification of the peace treaty in its present form. They were still unable to agree, however, on the form the suggested reservation should take, it was learned, and the first meeting of the foreign relations committee to consider the treaty behind closed doors with the anti-league program could not be determined on. The Republican leaders admitted that every move they had made thus far to unite these senators who entertain a wide divergence of views regarding peace reservations had met with failure.

RESOLUTIONS REPORTED

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, July 14.—Three separate resolutions indirectly involving the peace treaty were reported to the senate this afternoon by the senate foreign relations committee. Beyond taking up certain preliminaries connected with the treaty, the committee adjourned without considering the document itself or the proposed appearance of President Wilson before the committee.

The resolutions reported were: The Lodge measure requesting the president to furnish the senate with the copy of any treaty purported to have been projected between Germany and Japan, together with any information regarding it which may be in possession of the state department, an amendment to this measure reading, "or any further information concerning the negotiations between Germany and Japan during the war," adopted by a vote of 13 to 2; the Borah resolution calling upon the president for the production of a protest against the cessation of Shantung to Japan, which Secretary Lansing, Gen. Bliss and Henry White as three of the American peace commissioners in Paris were reported to have signed before the peace conference ended; the La Follette resolution requesting the president to inform the senate why Nicaragua "had been permitted to invade Costa Rica," and "for what reason Costa Rica, a belligerent with the allies in the war, was not permitted to sign the Versailles treaty."

SWANSON OPENS DEBATE

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, July 14.—Describing the league of nations as the "world's greatest charter of peace which would survive the vicious attacks of new prophets of evil," Senator Swanson, Democrat of Virginia, member of the Senate foreign relations committee, presented in a keynote address in the Senate this afternoon, a series of arguments in support of those provisions of the league covenant upon which President Wilson's opponents have centered their attacks.

BIG BATTLE BEGINS

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, July 14.—Warfare over the league of nations and other disputed provisions of the peace treaty, was to be renewed in the senate today, with President Wilson's support-

FLIERS AND PLANE COME HERE TODAY TO AID RECRUITING

SECOND MACHINE EXPECTED HOURLY TO DO STUNTS FOR PUBLIC.

Gave Ground Exhibition

STRIPPED OF WINGS, PLANE IS PARADED ABOUT THE STREETS.

With the arrival of another plane and aviator, expected here this afternoon or early Tuesday, the recruiting party will be reunited. The flier will do stunts here in conjunction with the ground exhibition of the air forces.

Lieutenant Bunting is in command of the first unit of the recruiting mission which arrived here Sunday afternoon. The party includes Lieutenant Bunting and nine sergeants, including several flight sergeants. One plane, mounted on trucks, which arrived here from Cullman, will be used for exhibition purposes during the two days stay here. The second plane is expected to arrive today from Birmingham in command of either Lieutenant Steel or Lieutenant Powell. It will make several flights here and will go back to Cullman Tuesday for a flight there.

The recruiting party was delayed at Birmingham because of the rain. The landing field there became too muddy to allow the planes to take the air. The exhibition ship, mounted on the trucks, came on to Cullman and was exhibited with much interest there.

The party carries much literature relating to the aviation branch of the army and Lieutenant Bunting stated today he expected to get a number of recruits here. Several were obtained in Cullman. He announced that anyone enlisting in the air service today or Tuesday will be given a ride in the ship here before being transferred to Montgomery.

"The aviation repair depot in Montgomery is the only field of its kind in the county," said Lieutenant Bunting. "It will be maintained permanently by the government."

"The aviation branch just now offers unusual opportunities to the young men of the state, who are physically fit for service. The pay is from $30 to $120 per month and there is no branch which has so many non-commissioned officers. Promotion is rapid and the chances for a commission are excellent. The service now is badly in need of photographers. Anyone enlisting for that may be given a commission within one year's time if he proves himself worthy. We train men for all kinds of trades and the education the service offers itself is something many have found to be highly profitable. We have accepted 275 men for service since April out of the many applicants."

MERGING OF CITIES URGED IN SERMON BY DR. W. P. WILKS

SHOULD NOT BE SO CARELESS OF CITIES' FUTURE HE SAYS.

Opportunity is Subject

"ARE BEING LAUGHED AT BY OUTSIDE WORLD"—DR. WILKS SAYS.

"Opportunity," was the subject of a stirring sermon preached last night on the Y. M. C. A. lawn by Dr. W. P. Wilks, pastor of the Central Baptist church from the text "Walk in Wisdom Toward Them That are Without, redeeming the time, Col. 4:5. Besides calling attention to the large field of service open to the churches of the community and the duty of Christians to live consistently, the speaker came out strong and clear for something to be done definitely in a civic way.

After stating that his convictions on the great future of this community, was one of the determining causes of his coming here, and also of his recent determination not to accept the state chairmanship of the big Baptist drive for $75,000,000 for educational purposes, which was offered him recently in Montgomery, the speaker said: "I think that we should all get together in a serious civic meeting, not just to speak, but to think and think and think, and plan and plan and plan for the future of this great community."

Dr. Wilks said that Providence had left only 5% for human hands, of the 100% necessary to make this community the great metropolis of North Alabama. After stating that it had always been his thought that these cities should be one great city, that regardless of what was thought about the matter that a definite decision should be made in the two cities as to what could and should be done as to consolidation. The speaker said: "We are being laughed at by the outside world, while we are engaging in the baby act of contending over past and non-essential matters. If in war time we had been as careless of the future of the country as we seem now to be toward the future opportunities that await us as a community, we would have justly been referred to as 'slackers'."

The speaker dwelt on the fact that people throughout the state invariably would ask: "And where is Albany?" when it was stated that he was from Albany. After reciting several instances of this kind the speaker spoke of the great need of continued and greater advertisement of the city.

The folly of leaving the whole expansion of the community to a few members and the secretary of the Board of Commerce was referred to at some length. The musical program of the evening was led by Mrs. Herman O. Truup, with Mrs. D. D. Gibson at the piano. A pleasing solo was sung by B. B. Pickens.

Medicos Demand Eight-Hour Day

(International News Service.) EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 14.—Higher fees and shorter hours are wanted by the doctors of Evansville. The Vanderburg County Medical Association has appointed a committee to revise the schedule of fees, with a provision for a working day of eight hours.

Former Kaiser Able to Smile

(International News Service.) AERONGEN, Holland, July 14.—William Hohenzollern, ex-kaiser, is not the broken man he has been pictured, nor is he apparently worrying over the prospect of facing trial for war crimes, according to his appearance. The correspondent had an extremely clear view of him and the former empress and a secretary while walking on the grounds in the castle of Couniceburg. The one-time emperor was laughing gaily, talking animatedly and swinging his cane just as he did in pre-war days.

JACKSON APPEALS TO ALABAMIANS TO GRANT WOMEN THE BALLOT

A. E. Jackson, of Hartselle, a member of the state advisory committee of the Alabama Equal Suffrage association, today issued the following appeal to Alabamians to grant woman the ballot:

In view of the fact that the Federal Suffrage Amendment has passed Congress by an overwhelming majority, and that it has already been ratified by nine states, not one state having failed to ratify, the question of woman suffrage is already a settled issue. There can be no doubt that within a very short time the necessary thirty-six states will agree to the amendment, with the result that complete franchise will be accomplished. The question confronting the Alabama legislature is will the legislature agree to the suffrage amendment voluntarily, or will Alabama wait to be forced into the suffrage ranks by other states?

The women of thirty states will participate in the election of the next president, whether or not the federal suffrage amendment is ratified by that time. Most of the states in which women vote lie in the west and middle west, which is now the pivotal section of the country in our national elections, for these states sometimes favor the Democrats, sometimes the Republicans. Can Southern Democrats afford to oppose the further enfranchisement of women, and thus antagonize that large group of men and women who reside in the suffrage states?

Woodrow Wilson and other national leaders of the Democratic party are now urging the ratification of the Suffrage Amendment. Will not Alabama follow the lead of the Democratic President of the United States in this matter of national importance?

A. E. JACKSON, Member of the State Advisory Committee of the Alabama Equal Suffrage Association

President Cables Greetings to the French People

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, July 14.—President Wilson today sent the following message of greeting to President Poincare of France on the occasion of Bastille Day: "May I not on this day, which commemorates the breaking of the chains which once bound France to an intolerable servitude, convey to the people of France the cordial fraternal greetings of the people of the United States, and their sense of privilege and joy in having been associated with France in breaking the bonds of the world."

Little Interest in Seventh Election

(International News Service.) GADSDEN, Ala., July 14.—A primary election will be held in the Seventh congressional district tomorrow to nominate a Democratic candidate for the seat in congress left vacant by the death of John L. Burnett. There are four candidates in the field, and all are confident of the result, they state. But little interest has been manifested in the primary thus far.

Plutocratic "Gob" Plans to Serve Balance of Time

(International News Service.) NEW YORK, July 14.—E. L. Perkins, of Eastland, Texas, the world's richest "gob," is going to stick out the remainder of his four-year's term of enlistment in the U. S. navy, though fate has suddenly tossed into his lap an income of $480,000 per year. When he gets out of the navy, he will devote his wealth to "the people and Christianity," he said. Perkins owned an 80-acre farm in Texas, but felt the call to the sea. He enlisted in the navy and became a stoker on the transport Imperator. When the ship docked here yesterday he learned that a 6000-barrel gusher oil well had been struck on his farm, and that other wells may bring his income to $1,000,000 a year.

Year Ago Today Germans Launched Their Great Drive

(International News Service.) The allied victory parade in Paris today is being held on Bastille Day, the 130th anniversary of the storming of the famous bastille prison one of the first acts of the French revolution. One year ago today shortly before midnight, the Germans began their artillery preparation for their last great offensive, launched on the morning of July 15 with a great infantry attack between Soissons and the Argonne. Three American divisions helped to repel the German blow in less than three days of fighting.

PARIS CELEBRATES IN GREAT PARADE LED BY MARSHALS

Leading them on horseback was Marshal Foch, generalissimo of the allied successes on the field of battle; beside him rode Marshal Joffre, hero of the first battle of the Marne. Riding at the heads of the various contingents came General Pershing, Haig, Petain, Diaz, Castelnau and other great chiefs. The troops marched in alphabetical order, which brought the Americans, led by General Pershing, immediately behind Foch and Joffre.

NEW ARRAIGNED ON MURDER CHARGE

GIRL'S SLAYER RECEIVES TWO MYSTERY LETTERS FROM LONG BEACH.

LOS ANGELES, July 14.—Two mystery letters from persons who claimed to have information valuable in the defense of Harry S. New, Jr., confessed slayer of Freda Lesser, were received by New in his cell at the county jail and turned over to his attorney today. The letters were postmarked Long Beach, and the writer declared that he had from Miss Lesser's own lips a statement of her attitude toward the slayer.

While a score of women struggled for admittance to the court room, Harry S. New Jr., was arraigned today before Judge Garvin W. Craig on an indictment charging him with first degree murder.

It was officially announced that Attorney Le Compte Davis, one of the best known criminal lawyers in California, has been retained to aid in the fight to save New from the gallows. Asked as to the source of the financial remuneration by which Davis was retained, Attorney Richard said: "Mr. Davis has been retained for good and sufficient reasons."

Teachers Threaten to Teach German Children to Hate

(International News Service.) BERLIN, July 14.—A threat to instill a spirit of revenge in German children is contained in a proclamation signed by a number of high-school teachers which was published in conservative newspapers today.

After criticizing the entente, the proclamation concludes: "If we are compelled to fulfill these peace demands, we turn away with contempt from nations which lack the moral force to suppress this criminal jugglery, and will work with all our might to make our children and grandchildren inherit this sentiment and to keep it permanently alive in the German nation."

'HAPPY CHRIST' IS PASTOR'S SUBJECT ON CHURCH LAWN

REV. WILLIAM SHOLL PREACHES AN OPEN AIR MEETING IN DECATUR.

"He Rejoiced in Spirit"

TELLS HOW SAVIOR WAS NOT ALWAYS "MAN OF SORROWS."

The membership of the First Presbyterian church of Decatur enjoyed an open air service last night, when their pastor, Rev. W. N. Sholl preached a most helpful sermon on the church lawn. The theme was, "The Happy Christ." Last night's sermon was the third of a series on the Characteristics of the Savior. Mr. Sholl's text was Luke 10:21. "In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit."

"Christ was happy because of the constant presence of the Father," said the preacher.

We all know that the presence of our loved ones makes quite a difference in our feelings. Life often seems stale and profitless without them. Jesus was God's well beloved Son, but we must remember that God was Jesus' well beloved Father. Much of the happiness of His life was due to the constant recognition of His Father's presence, and He that sent is with me the Father hath not left me alone, and so with us. To know and experience the presence of God and the son Jesus Christ in our hearts, is to possess a happiness that even the best things in the world above us cannot give. I am fully aware that I am not talking to you in the language of the street. There may be some here tonight who cannot appreciate what I am saying. The truth may make no appeal to some casual reader of these lines. Nevertheless fellowship with God the Jesus Christ as the chief source of abiding human happiness is a very great lesson that we all should learn. "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. He that is able to receive it let him receive it."

"Mystical and beautiful indeed. Yet practical enough to be of help to every true Christian and by God's grace may we all become such, are the words of an old poem.

"There is sunlight on the hill top,
There is sunset on the sea
And the golden beams are sleeping
On the soft and verdant lea.
But a richer light is filling
All the chambers of my heart,
For thou art there my savior
And 'tis sunlight where Thou art."

Continuing his discourse the speaker said:

"We think, I believe far too much of Jesus Christ as a man of trouble.

"It is true that He was a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief, that He wept, that He groaned in the spirit and was troubled and that in the garden of Gethsemane he entered into the most bitter of all agonies. And yet we get a very wrong impression of Him if we think of Christ as an unhappy man. While His sad emotions (Continued on page three.)

WHAT HENRY FORD DID TO HELP WIN THE WAR

The long-drawn out libel suit of Henry Ford against the Chicago Tribune, a newspaper that saw fit to dub the automobile manufacturer as an "anarchist," and also a newspaper that reverts to the South as "illiterate" and "lawless," has served to bring out some interesting facts as to who did the most to help win the war, Mr. Ford or the Tribune.

Edsel Ford, son of the big financier, called to the stand, testified practically as follows, according to press dispatches sent out from Mt. Clemens:

The Ford company manufactured liberty airplane motors. Mr. Ford testified, and by a new process cheapened the production of cylinders for this motor and manufactured all of the cylinders used by the Ford company and other companies making liberty motors and likewise the bearings; it made nine or ten thousand artillery caissons; did the finishing work of two million helmets; perfected and produced a new light armor for tanks which withstood the shock of older armor twice its weight and thickness; produced sixteen hundred tanks and had an order for 15,000 of them when the war stopped; turned out gears and boilers for the Eagle boats; tractors to increase food production in England; and in a separate plant at River Rouge produced hulls for the Eagle boats. Henry Ford, witness continued, maintained in England throughout the war a hospital for Belgian refugees, and in the United States turned over to Government use large buildings in Cambridge, Mass., Atlanta, St. Louis, Cleveland, Long Island City, Washington and Detroit.

The public can draw its own conclusions as to whether or not Henry Ford did his "bit," and whether or not he was subject to censure by a newspaper of the ilk of the Tribune, a sheet that claims to represent the sentiment of a metropolis that elected a disloyal American as mayor.

Consolidate, let progress enter. Let the man or woman who wants to live next door to the city hall, post office or depot move to the rural hamlet where they can enjoy these "privileges" unhampered. But do not let them stand in the way of progress.

The News knows that the above sentiments are very unpopular with some of our business men, and may lose some patronage. But if in order to obtain this patronage we must stand in the way of progress we are perfectly willing to stand this loss.

THE AMERICAN LEGION HOPS ON JIM REED

The American Legion, Post No. 1, of Birmingham, demonstrated that it has a mission to perform—the protection of 100 per cent Americanism—when it adopted resolutions protesting against the proposed address of James A. Reed, of Missouri, in the Magic City. The Legion, while endorsing the league of nations, did not oppose the Reed speech merely because the senator is lined up with the republicans against President Wilson. It based its action on the fact that the Missouri solon had not stacked up as a good American during the trying days of the war, and had been aligned on more than one occasion with the friends of the enemy. The action of the Legion was wise and well taken. While the right of free speech is guaranteed in Dixie, there are certain abuses of the privilege that amount to insult and should be rebuked. The South has no love for men of the Reed type, and no desire to hear their harangues. They are only tolerated in this section through a spirit of hospitality which Reed took advantage of and considerably strained.

If you are inclined to get hot under the collar, just leave it off.

High taxes are not so bad, as they are spent in America. Suppose the tax man took your money to be sent to Germany, as might have been the case.

Since millions can henceforth celebrate Independence day, it is not so bad even if one certain King never can.

By comparison Francisco Villa bids fair to become a highly respected citizen in Mexico; now that the I WONT WORKS are becoming active down there.

CONSOLIDATION "TALK"

(Decatur Weekly News)

All this consolidation talk reminds us of a very business-like young fellow who was contemplating matrimony. He wanted to discuss the following topics with the bride-to-be: Who is going to pay the grocery bill? the meat bill? the dry goods bill, the clothing bill? the rent? and various other expenses. He wanted to know who was going to mind the babies, feed the chickens and cat. He also wanted to know who was going to get up in the morning and build the fire, and carry in coal, split wood, etc.

It would not take a young lady very many minutes to decide on her answer if all these questions accompanied a marriage proposal, no matter how worthy the young man may be.

But nevertheless this is what has been going on between Decatur and Albany for many years—always trying to reach an "agreement." We feel like repeating the time-worn phrase of the old farmer as he stood eyeing a long-necked giraffe—"thar nint no sech critter."

If consolidation is to be put off until an "agreement" is reached all this energy that is being put forth to consolidate may as well be used in other directions.

There is only one way to do the thing, and that is TO GET TOGETHER, and have one greater city and the small details will adjust themselves. This is the only way, we believe that consolidation will ever come about. It makes very little difference whether it is done by legislative enactment or by local elections. When the two cities are one, and a great city is built here, what difference will it make to our children how it was done.

It is an evident fact that two towns as closely related as Albany and Decatur can never reap a full harvest by being divided.

It is immaterial to the News where the post office is located, where the city hall is to be, or the location of the depot, or a lot of other trivial matters. If the location of these things are to be taken into consideration, we certainly sympathize with people living in cities like Chicago, New York, Philadelphia or Boston, as a great many of the people living in these cities never know where the post office is, or the city hall or any other public building, in which they very seldom have any business.

Consolidate, let progress enter. Let the man or woman who wants to live next door to the city hall, post office or depot move to the rural hamlet where they can enjoy these "privileges" unhampered. But do not let them stand in the way of progress.

remain our only big money producing industry, as long as these towns stay at cross purposes as they have for so long. Men with large plans will never care to try to work out their plans in places where we stay in a fuss like we do here. And as long as there are two competing cities so close together there is bound to be much friction. As we have been unable to bring big industries here, so we will never be able to bring the Southern Railroad to Albany. We must show a determination to expand and go forward, if we expect others to come in and help us. As for the disposition of public buildings and city debts, we can settle all that when we are consolidated. And as for the final name of the new city, how would NEW Decatur do? If there is another such named city anywhere I have never heard of it, and we will have a new city and a big one when we consolidate. Especially should people who have most of their lives before them pull strong for the new city. For they and their offspring will become mighty tired some day, as the rest of the world is consolidating, uniting and going forward—of just staying in one of two little cities and depending almost wholly on the L. & N. shops and what can be made and spent out of them. Let us all get together, put present selfish cliques and supposed soft snap jobs to one side, and all get busy for the big new city and the bright future that awaits this community if we do our duty.

If there have been wrongs in the past let us forget them in the new and big opportunities of the future. I believe that there is absolute fairness intended toward all concerned in the present move for consolidation. I do not believe the charges that unfairness and selfishness is at the bottom with those who are now working so faithfully for consolidation. And whatever method—the legislative or local election—is chosen as the best and quickest way to consolidation, I am for; but by all means we should be one city in time for the 1920 census which will be taken early in next year.

Yours for consolidation,
L. S. ROBINSON.

It is gratifying to learn from press reports that "almost universally the glorious fourth was pulled off 'as advertised' this year. Of course once in a while an airplane failed to appear, but all things that have just mere air back of them are uncertain.

"Happy Christ" is Pastor's Subject

tions were deeper than ours and He knew sorrows such as only God could feel, yet His was a joyous and buoyant spirit. He was the Prince of the world's optimists. In what seemed to be the very darkest hours of His life, He turned to his disciples and said:

"Peace. I leave with you, my peace. I give unto you. These things have I spoken unto you that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full." He knew the meaning of the storm clouds, and the storm itself, but His happiness was like the sunshine that lives on beyond all storms.

"Why was Christ happy? Why was the stream of His joy fresh and full and perennial?"

Well, for one thing he knew how to appreciate for Himself the external blessings of life. That is a lesson that many never really learn. The beauty of His Father's world made Him happy. The majesty of the mountain, the murmur of the brook, the wonderful tints of an evening sky, the starry canopy of the night, the glorious freshness of the dawn, the sheep grazing on the hillside or the lilies blossoming in the field brought real joy to His spirit. He was also made happy by the openness and responsiveness of little children, and by the manifestations of real affection on the part of those who loved Him. He was happy because He knew how to gather up the sunbeams lying all along his path. But Jesus was happy for deeper reasons than these.

"He was happy because of the service He was able to render his fellow man. He illustrated the beautiful saying that the way to be happy is to make others happy. The crippled came to him and were made straight, the lepers and were made clean and strong. He made the blind to see and the deaf to hear. He was forever letting the smile of Heaven rest upon it. Always a friend to those in need."

"He knew in the highest sense the ecstasy of living. He was happy because of the new spiritual force He was letting loose into the world, because of the new hope, which with the glory of the sunrise was to steal into human hearts. He rejoiced because His greatest act of service the Cross itself, was to be a tree of life for the healing of the nations."

Christ was happy because He knew that all things were working together for good. He rejoiced because men were not the blind in time of fate, or the helpless pawns in a crazy game of chance, but that thro' all the strife and turmoil of life His all-wise and beneficent Father was working out His great and holy ends. He did not belong to a dark browed line of pessimists. He knew that the best was yet to be, the last of life for which the first was made. He was happy because He was perfectly sure that there was a place where all the sins of life would be forgotten where all the wrongs of life would be righted and where all the sorrows of life would be healed.

"Christ was happy because of the wealth of his inner life, a good man shall be satisfied from himself. "If happiness has not her seat and center in the breast, we may be wise or rich or great but we never can be blest. No pleasures or treasures can make us happy long. It's always the heart aye, that makes us right or wrong." Jesus did not belong to that class that had to wear a certain cut of clothes or live in a certain kind of house, or associate with a certain class of people or live on a certain diet to be happy. His happiness was deeper than this. He had in his own heart those treasures which constitute real happiness."

Amusements*"THE NEW RECRUIT"

SHOWS AT ORPHEUM

A comedy of merit in "The New Recruit," which opened at the Orpheum yesterday. The play is presented by the Girls from Starland Company, and carries with it a carload of scenery and an extensive wardrobe, which makes it one of the best comedies seen here this year.

Joe Anthony, a darktown specimen, is the rookie, and his antics in camp, where he is surrounded by a group of good-looking girl soldiers, are most amusing. Joe is a good blackface artist, and his arguments with his "cap'n" create most of the fun of the evening. "Saturday Night," one of his songs, is a travesty on the nationwide prohibition law, and went over in good shape last night.

Billy Fenton takes the part of the captain and is well suited to the part. He possesses a pleasing voice, and his song, "Somebody Loves You, Dear," was well rendered.

Charlie Marvell is a violinist of exceptional ability. He plays an ordinary violin with skill and also rigs up an old saw with a piece of rosin and makes harmony.

The Earl Sisters, in specialty work, are good entertainers, and both are good to look at. Peggy and Katherine are their names, and they execute their dances with skill, as well as sing a number of songs. "Hanging Around" was a most pleasing offering.

"Blue Ridge Blues," led by Peggy Earl, brought applause as well as "Fazzing the Blues Away." Other new songs are included in the show.—Exchange.

The Girls from Starland opens at the Masonic theatre today for a week's engagement.

Where Can I Find Relief From Itching, Terrifying Eczema?*Question on Lips Afflicted

There is a harrassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source, which is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., for this remedy so thoroughly cleanses the blood that no impurities can remain. TO PALE PEOPLE—
YOUR BLOOD MAY BE STARVING FOR IRON!

If Your Blood Needs Iron, It Needs ZIRON, the New Compound of Iron, Which Acts as a Strengthening Tonic, Enriching the Blood and Building up the System.

When your blood lacks the proper proportion of red corpuscles to give your complexion the "rosy hue of health" and your complexion is pale, "pasty-looking", perhaps even greenish-tinged, you are probably of an anemic or chlorotic nature, and your blood needs Ziron, to bring back the rich, red flush of health.

Ziron, the new compound of iron, the hypophosphites of lime and soda, and other tonic, strengthening ingredients; has been found of great value in conditions of simple anemia, chlorosis, debility, nervousness, lack of ambition, loss of appetite, dyspepsia, etc. It is a valuable reconstructive tonic, in cases of weakness, and helps build up the constitution after severe illness.

Mrs. Mae Belle Perkins, of Adairsville, Ga., writes: "About two months ago I got to feeling badly. My back hurt me badly, and my legs and arms hurt too, and I didn't have any appetite at all to eat. About two weeks ago I commenced taking Ziron, according to directions on the bottle. . . . By the time I had taken the medicine for a week, I could see it was doing me good. I had been weak and nervous, and it made me feel stronger, and I'm not a bit nervous now. My back is all right, and my arms and legs do not ache. And my appetite is good again.

Before I started using Ziron I wouldn't rest at night, I was so tired feeling and felt worn out. I have used nearly the whole bottle and now I sleep fine every night. It sure is a fine medicine, and I am glad I tried it."

Ziron is non-alcoholic, contains no habit-forming drugs, acts gently, has no bad effects, is good for men, women and children. It is a medicine of genuine composed of ingredients prescribed by eminent physicians. Try it.

SPECIAL OFFER: Buy a bottle of ZIRON, today, at your druggist's and give it a fair trial, according to directions on the label. After using up one bottle, if you find it has not benefited you, take it back to the druggist and he will refund what you paid him for it. We repay him, so there is no reason why he should not repay you. This offer only applies to the first trial bottle.

INSPIRING PAGEANT
CELEBRATED—METHODIST CENTENARY

This great Centenary that was held at Columbus, Ohio, in celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the Methodist church, was Methodism's greatest event—it was of interest to every denomination for it marks with a "white stone" not only the 100th anniversary of Methodism but much of the religious history of the country of the same period.

"The wayfarer" the pageant profoundly moved all who saw it both from a musical and religious standpoint, this was presented every evening during the three weeks of the centenary.

A chorus of twelve thousand, an orchestra of 75 pieces, a trombone choir of one hundred, a huge pipe organ costing along $50,000 augmented the orchestra throughout the production of the pageant, and furnished the accompaniments for the choruses and quartets and gave the atmosphere for the messages of the "Heavenly Messenger."

There was also an orchestral concert given every afternoon at one under the direction of William J. Kraft, official organist and many organ artists gave recitals, among them Arthur Kraft of Cleveland. Thousands of men, women and children were used in the pageant and every detail
was completely worked out by experts.

Theme of "The Wayfarer"

"In these days of world upheaval, when much that is authoritative from the past is being questioned, when the industrial and social order is being revolutionized, when the task of reconstructing the world is so tremendous, many devout people find themselves bewildered and discouraged. Some look for escape by way of a physical cataclysm that shall usher in the end of things. Many sit dumb with despair, wondering if the church will prove adequate to meet the problems of a new day.

"The Wayfarer" represents this discouraged element. He is guided from despair to faith and service by "Understanding," who unfolds to him
the living presence of the Christ in every age, triumphant over all adversity—Emanuel—"God with us."

It is a modern morality, miracle and mystery play all in one, and is meant to teach a great and wholesome moral and spiritual lesson to humanity. It is the church at last taking advantage of the dramatic incidents of the Bible, and using them as they were effectively used in the early days of Christianity. It is for the people of America—a second Passion Play, bringing into spectacle, and in right relationship, the big events of today and the emotional stories, that are highly dramatic, in the Bible, cleverly weaving them together for the purposes of example and precept.
"The nativity" the wonderful "Shepherd scene," the "Crucifixion," the "Resurrection" and the victory of Christianity over the "son of the world" are marvelously depicted and impressed deeply upon the audience.
It is "Understanding" who directs
"The Wayfarer" from the battlefields of the late war back to Babylonian captivity, and then forward through all the dramatic events up to and including the life of Christ.

The music was selected from Handel's "Messiah" for the most part.
Dr. Crowther has given to the world a great work in "The Wayfarer" and suggests the dramatization of the great Oratorios that would be so much more interesting than the dully dull uprisings and sitting down of the choruses and soloists. Those taking part were all professionals, actors, actresses and metropolitan opera singers.

Two Legislature
Camps Probable

MONTGOMERY, July 14.—The members of the Alabama legislature
may line up into progressive and reactionary camps as a result of the new revenue bill upon which a hearing will be held next Wednesday afternoon
before a joint-committee of the ways and means appropriation committee of the house and the finance and taxation committee of the senate. The revenue bill seeks to solve the problem of taxation until the next legislature meets and opponents of the measure who have already appeared in and out of the legislature say it is a contradiction on the question of taxation. The general argument along this line resolves itself into a protest against taxing one group of interests representing capital and property and exempting another large group representing the same thing—
capital and property.

ers and antagonists busily engaged in "digging in," for what was expected to be a protracted and bitterly fought parliamentary and oratorical battle.

Since the President addressed the senate and laid before it the peace treaty on Thursday last, the lines between league proponents and opponents have been more tightly drawn than they were before his return from the peace conference. Both sides still claimed the victory, but the republican leaders of the senate, face to face
at last with the concrete proposition of either ratifying or rejecting the treaty, admitted the opposition to the president was still divided, as to the form proposed textual amendments or qualifying reservations should take.

Storm Buffeted
Scouts Are Back
From Blue Water

Storm-buffed by the gale that swept North Alabama late Friday, and thoroughly caught up on realistic experiences, the Albany boy scouts are home again. They curtailed their stay a whole week in order that they might again extend their feet under the family mahogany.

The boys tell of some thrilling experiences, of having to spend two nights in a negro church when their tents proved untrustworthy, and of having to walk fourteen miles to Courtland and return to secure supplies and sweets. Some of them had a fight for their lives when caught boating in the Tennessee by the storm.
All, however, escaped without injury.

With Use of Razor, Cotton Thread and Ether, Red Cross Nurse Operates and Saves man's Life

(International News Service.)

DRAMA, Macedonia (by mail).—With nothing but an ordinary razor, a spool of No. 40 cotton thread and a small portion of ether and chloroform at her disposal, an American Red Cross nurse performed a life-or-death operation here as the result of which and her other errands of mercy she has come to be known as "the American Angel" by the homeless and starving Greek refugees.

Miss Maria P. Kouroyen is the American girl's name. Born of Greek parents, she was educated in Massachusetts and is a graduate nurse of the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. Because of her knowledge of Greek and her training, the American Red Cross sent her to Macedonia, that No Man's Land and Wild West of the Near East, where typhus, smallpox and cholera tread on each other's heels and where the refugees bury their dead beneath the dirt floors of their shell-shattered shacks, so that the bread card of the dead members of their family shall not be taken up.

Living in a boxcar on a railroad siding, Miss Kouroyen one night saw a Greek soldier bearing a limp bundle over his shoulder. The bundle was carefully placed on the floor of the boxcar and unwrapped. Within was an aged Greek, with the pallor of suffering upon his face. Around his right leg was a rude tourniquet of rope. Filthy bandages covered the rope. The Greek soldier was followed by a small crowd composed of Turks, Greeks and a few British Tommies.

"He fell off the roof of a train under the wheels of a car while faint from lack of food," explained the Greek soldier. "The local doctor says it is no use to take him to a hospital, as he will die on the way. We have no surgeon here, and the British surgeons are not in town. Something must be done for him at once, or he will die!"

Miss Kouroyen spent no time in talking. Quickly she unwrapped the leg, the bone of which had been crushed in the accident. Lieutenant Abner J. Cobb, of Denver, Colo., an American Red Cross fieldworker, was shaving by candlelight in the boxcar at the time. Miss Kouroyen took the razor from his hand and, while it was sterilizing in alcohol, anaesthetized her patient with her small supply of ether and chloroform, and amputated the bone with other primitive means.

With cotton thread No. 40 she "tied off" the arteries and veins and then cut away the loose flesh with the razor, which Lieutenant Cobb has since presented to her as a souvenir of her plucky work. The leg was then bound in an alcohol dressing.

Despite the prediction that the aged patient would not live through the night, Miss Kouroyen some time later received a visit from her patient.

Mr. J. W. Jordan L. & N. Car Repairer Declares It Great

FOR YEARS HAD CATARRH OF THE HEAD AND THROAT, CONSTIPATED, GAS ON THE STOMACH AND WEAK KIDNEYS.

Great Relief From the New Root and Herb Remedy, Dreco, which is causing such a lot of talk in Birmingham

"I have taken only one bottle of Dreco, and I want to buy nine more today, for without a doubt this is the best medicine ever offered for sale in Birmingham, and I ought to know for I've tried about all of them," declared that well known and highly thought of man, Mr. J. W. Jordan, who resides at Green Springs, just outside of Birmingham, and who is employed in the L. & N. Shops.

"I've had a bad case of catarrh of the head and throat for sometime. Every morning my head would feel dull and heavy; my nose and throat all choked up, and my breath was foul; it would take sometime to get cleared up. My sleep was badly broken up, for I'd roll from one side of the bed to the other on account of, then about the time I'd drop to sleep, I would have to get up on account of my kidneys wanting to act. My liver was very sluggish and my bowels badly constipated; gas in my stomach and pains in my abdomen were a great annoyance."

"Being a great believer in roots and herbs, I decided to try Dreco, which was claimed to fit my case. It is remarkable what this medicine has done for me; my bowels move regularly. I sleep the whole night through and never have to get up on account of my kidneys. On waking my head feels clear, and my nose and throat are also free. I feel so much better that I expect to take a long treatment of Dreco, for I feel sure it is going to give me a complete cure."

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Albany by Albany Drug Co., and in Decatur by Hilda Drug Co.—Advertisement.
